

STATUTES OF THE SALZBURG CONGRESS ON URBAN PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT (SCUPAD)

Summary in English of the SCUPAD Statutes including all revisions as decided by the General Assembly 1994. The original and legally binding version is in German and written according to Austrian law, as SCUPAD is an association registered in Salzburg.

Drafted by the SCUPAD Secretary Frohmüt Gerheuser, Switzerland, 1994.

§1 Name, seat of and range of activities

Name: Salzburg Congress on Urban Planning and Development (SCUPAD),

Registered at Schloss Leopoldskron, Salzburg.

The activities of SCUPAD extend to all countries. The official language is English.

§2 Purpose

SCUPAD has as its purpose the furtherance of contacts among Salzburg Seminar fellows and the exchange of experience in the field of urban and regional planning and development, specifically through professional meetings, social gatherings and other events, as well as through a newsletter.

SCUPAD is a non-profit organization according to Austrian law.

§3 Financial means

SCUPAD's financial means derive from membership fees, donations and other contributions.

§4 Members

The association accepts only individuals as ordinary members.

Institutions may become extraordinary members.

§5 Membership

The committee decides on the acceptance of new members; no justification is required when membership is refused.

§6 Termination of Membership

Membership terminates through resignation (written notice), elimination by the committee (if the membership fee has not been paid for two years) or death.

Overdue payments continue to be owed to SCUPAD.

§7 Membership fee

The General Assembly decides the amount of the membership fee each year.

The business year of the association is the calendar year.

§8 Rights of members

Ordinary members have active and passive voting rights and the right to profit from the benefits of SCUPAD. Extraordinary members (institutions) have no voting rights.